A. Sophie Rogers School for Early Learning

Welcome to the Family Resource Fair

Learn about school- and community-provided resources and services.

St. Vincent Family Services
Meet Early Childhood Program Director Vivian Becerra and learn more about programs and services that St. Vincent has to support your family's wellness.

Columbus Metropolitan Library
Learn about CML resources and programs to help your child prepare for kindergarten. Sign up for a CML library card and meet librarians from the Northside Branch.

ASR Parent Teacher Organization
Families interested in joing the ASR PTO are invited to stop by the PTO table and talk to ASR parent Bernard Hayman for information on how to join and become more involved with ASR events and initatives.

Columbus City Schools
Jessica Householder, a CCS representative, will be here to give families more information about the kindergarten transition process.

Lutheran Social Services
Meet outreach coordinator Guy Pace and learn about local resources for housing, health care, or emergency assistance.

ASR BSSW Social Work Intern
Meet Noelle Shelly and learn more the resources and support she can provide to your family. Noelle's email address is shelly.39@osu.edu.

ezParent Research Study
Join this study to help researcher understand how to best support parents of children ages 2-5. Complete 3 surveys over 6 months and earn up to $60 in incentives. Scan the QR code for more information.

A. Sophie Rogers School for Early Learning

Welcome to the Family Resource Fair

Learn about school- and community-provided resources and services.

Community Music School

The Community Music School offers preschool music classes for children. Angela Heck Mueller, the program director, will have more information available on how to enroll and scholarships that are available for those in need. To learn more, email communitymusicschool@osu.edu.

Alliance of Therapy Dogs

Therapy goldendoodle Louise and her owner Sara will be on hand to greet families, and provide more information about the Alliance of Therapy Dogs program.

Early Head Start

OSU's Early Head Start Partnership Program provides high-quality early childhood education for children ages 0-4 who live in households experiencing poverty. EHS staff will provide more information about services and supports.

National Center for Urban Solutions

Meet fatherhood program coordinator Sasha LaMarr to learn more about fatherhood-focused programs happening in the Columbus community. To contact Sasha by email, slamarr@ncusolutions.com.

OSU - CCAMPIS

Program Coordinator Abigail Wilson will provide resources to families who qualify for CCAMPIS funding for their child's education.

OSU's Cognitive Development Lab

Learn more about how to your family can participate in research studies that focus on cognition changes in the course of development and learning through the COG LAB.

Crane Center for Early Childhood Research and Policy (CCEC)

Get information about CCEC's early childhood studies and research and interested families will have a chance to enroll in studies.

SFC ASR Library

Stop by the library to learn about library resources, how to borrow books, and sign up for the Dolly Parton Imagination Library. And pick out a free book to keep!